

Hand signals

First to third: Signal the outs with one hand in front of your body, then point to third.

Time play: Signal two outs with one hand in front of your body and point to the plate.

Infield fly: Signal the outs in front of the bill of your hat

OR

Signal the outs with one hand in front of your chest.

Plate umpire's responsibility for tag into third (same situation as infield fly with R1 and R2 only): Tap your fist on top of the other and point to third.

MOST IMPORTANT: TALK TO YOUR PARTNER AHEAD OF TIME IF YOU ARE UNSURE!

General Reminders

- Arrive at the field at least 30 minutes early.
- If you have not been to the field before, call your partner and figure out where to park.
- Park away from the field, keeping you distanced from the fans.
- When working with someone more than once in a season, trade plate/base each game. Be flexible with split double headers.
